

Program Educational Objectives (PEOs)

PEO 1: Knowledge Acquisition

To provide graduates with comprehensive and updated knowledge in pharmaceutical and allied fields, which includes but is not limited to the subjects pharmaceuticals, pharmaceutical chemistry, pharmacology, pharmacognosy, pharmaceutical analysis, quality assurance, clinical testing and pharmacovigilance, microbiology, immunology, molecular biology, biotechnology, biostatistics, etc., along with emerging trends in the science of making and safeguarding the use of medicines

PEO 2: Professional Skills Development

To instil a range of technical and professional skills that enable graduates to effectively engage in pharmaceutical research, manufacturing, quality assurance, regulatory affairs, clinical research and pharmacovigilance, medical coding, medical scripting, etc., ensuring they are well-prepared to meet the demands of the healthcare industry

PEO 3: Leadership and Interpersonal Skills

To inculcate leadership qualities and interpersonal skills in graduates, enabling them to work collaboratively, communicate effectively, and contribute positively to the conservation of health

PEO 4: Ethical and Professional Values

To promote a strong ethical framework and professional values, encouraging graduates to demonstrate integrity, empathy, and a commitment to lifelong learning in their careers as pharmacists and healthcare providers

