National Constitution Day Celebration

November 26, 2024 Mumbai, India: The National Service Scheme (NSS) of the Bombay Institute of Pharmacy & Research (BIPR) successfully conducted a National Constitution Day Celebration on 26th November 2024 aimed to promote awareness and understanding of the Indian Constitution and its fundamental principles. The event sought to inspire students and staff to reflect on the importance of these ideals in shaping a democratic society.

Program Highlights were as follows:

The event was organized to emphasize the values and principles enshrined in the Indian Constitution and to inspire students and staff to uphold its ideals. The program began at 11:00 AM with the collective reading of the Preamble to the Constitution. This solemn activity allowed participants to reaffirm their commitment to justice, liberty, equality, and fraternity as the foundation of Indian democracy.

The highlight of the event was the speech session held from 4:00 PM to 5:00 PM, where students and staff members eloquently shared their thoughts on the theme "Importance of Constitution."

- Principal, Dr. John Disouza, addressed the gathering, focusing on the importance of justice and the elimination of caste and religious discrimination. He highlighted the timeless teachings of Sant Tukaram and Mahatma Gandhi, drawing parallels between their philosophies and the core ideals of the Constitution. His speech served as an inspiration for all, encouraging the audience to uphold equality and fairness in all aspects of life.
- Among the speakers, Mr. Akshay Landge, Lecturer, delivered a thought-provoking speech representing the teaching staff, where he emphasized the critical role of the Constitution in ensuring citizens' rights and duties. His insights resonated deeply with the audience, showcasing the importance of constitutional values in daily life.

Speeches by Student Speakers:

□ Ms. Mayuri Ohal and Mr. Abrar Shaikh from Second Year B. Pharmacy:

Ms. Mayuri Ohal and Mr. Abrar Shaikh delivered a comprehensive and engaging presentation on the significance of the Indian Constitution. Their speech effectively captured the essence of the Constitution, its historical context, and its relevance in today's society. Their confident articulation and ability to explain complex ideas with clarity were particularly appreciated by the audience.

□ Mr. Guruprasad Sahoo and Ms. Chetana Dubey from First Year B. Pharmacy:

Mr. Guruprasad Sahoo and Ms. Chetana Dubey presented a well-structured speech, which not only explained the foundational aspects of the Constitution but also linked it to contemporary issues in society. Their ability to make the subject matter accessible and relatable to their peers demonstrated a deep understanding of the topic and was commendable.

□ Ms. Tina Ghosh and Ms. Sharwari Palyekar from Second Year D. Pharmacy:

Ms. Tina Ghosh and Ms. Sharwari Palyekar spoke with great passion, emphasizing the importance of understanding our rights and duties as citizens. Their presentation highlighted the democratic values enshrined in the Constitution, focusing on its enduring relevance in ensuring justice and equality. Their inspiring words left a lasting impact on the audience.

□ Mr. Kaustubh Choudhary and Ms. Renuka Singh from First Year D. Pharmacy:

Mr. Kaustubh Choudhary and Ms. Renuka Singh delivered an impactful speech that focused on the core principles of the Indian Constitution, stressing its role in safeguarding the rights of citizens and promoting equality. Their well-articulated points and enthusiasm conveyed the importance of upholding the Constitution's values, making their presentation both informative and inspiring.

The event was hosted by Mr. Raj Singh, a second-year student from the B. Pharmacy program. As the host, Raj seamlessly guided the event with professionalism and enthusiasm, ensuring the smooth flow of proceedings.

Mr. Raj Singh also delivered a Vote of Thanks at the conclusion of the event, expressing heartfelt gratitude to all the speakers, faculty members, and attendees for their participation and support. His closing words aptly summarized the significance of National Constitution Day and reaffirmed the collective commitment to understanding and preserving the values enshrined in the Constitution.

The event was meticulously coordinated by Mr. Dilip Morani and Mr. Vinayak Dubey, who ensured its smooth execution. The enthusiastic participation of students and faculty, combined with the insightful addresses, made the celebration a resounding success. National Constitution Day at BIPR proved to be a meaningful occasion to reflect on the enduring relevance of the Constitution and to inspire everyone to act as responsible and inclusive citizens of India.

The event provided a meaningful platform for students to express their views on the Indian Constitution, fostering a deeper understanding and appreciation of its principles. We extend our sincere thanks to all the participants and organizers for making National Constitution Day a memorable and impactful occasion.
